⑪ Exercise After Class Agreement

- (1) The student agrees to follow the instructions of the Starchild exercise class instructor.
- (2) Students must be in good health for the exercise class and approved by the instructor to participate.
- (3) If a student does not follow the instructor's instructions during class and is deemed to be a danger or inconvenience to other students, the instructor may ask the student to leave the room or observe the class immediately.
- (4) In the exercise class, students are instructed to perform activities that are appropriate for their level of ability. For safety reasons, instructors are on hand to assist students, but it is not easy to respond appropriately to all possible risks. The following are some of the things that can happen during practice.
 - Accidents beyond the scope of assistance during assisted practice.
 - Accidents that do not follow the instructor's instructions.

I understand the possibility of injury during class, including the above accident, and agree that I am responsible for it.

- (5) If a student is injured during an exercise class, I agree to pick up the student regardless of the extent of the injury.
- (6) I will not make any claim for damages against Star Child or any individual instructor in the case of an accident on the premises
 I agree

⑫ Consent to participate in special activities.

- (1) Special activities scheduled in conjunction with the package program are generally required to be attended by all children. If your child does not participate in a special activity, the teachers and staff will accompany the child to the activity and will not be able to care for the child at Starchild. Please understand this in advance.
- (2) If your child has a fever (even if the temperature is below the default fever temperature), injury, or illness before or on the morning of the activity, and we deem it difficult for your child to participate, we will ask you to pick up your child from the school. Please understand that it will be difficult for us to be flexible and accommodate your child's needs at the excursion destination, so we will make the decision based on the child's health as our first priority. We will not be able to refund the cost of special activities in such cases, due to the fact that tickets have already been arranged and teachers have already been assigned.
- (3) All fees for food and special programs included in the special activity fee are non-refundable for any reason. (This includes the case where a child refuses to participate in a special activity, and is not observed or does not participate in the activity. We will respect your child's decision at the time whether or not he/she wishes to experience the activity.)

I agree
